By: Bhupinder Chabara.

Now HCA is the official community partner to deliver the well needed services to the large number of local and international student community, especially from the South East Asia the well needed holistic support of Hinduism. We would aim to provide spiritual, religious, emotional and community support to large student community to further HCA presence in the well needed area. For now HCA will have presence on Wednesday and Thursdays at University of Western Sydney Parramatta City and South Campuses.
