

Pakistan Hindus celebrate Diwali 2018 in Karachi

By : www.pakistanhinducouncil.org.pk.

Karwan Group organised the Diwali function supported by Pakistan Hindu Council on 10th November, 2018 at Global Marquee, Karachi. The event has the theme of Ramayn as Diwali is celebrated for the return of Lord Ram to Ayodha after 14 year of Banwas. The event was started by doing Arti and then all religious tableau were followed. Mr. Kirshan Sagar (Representer Karwan Group) welcome the all bearers and members of Pakistan Hindu Council and appreciated the efforts of Dr. Ramesh Kumar Vankwani and Mr. Gopal Khamuani for Hindus all over Sindh and other provinces.

He also appreciated the efforts of Ex-President Mr. Hotchand Karmani who have done wonderful work in his tenure. He further stated that it is our pleasure to have all the elders and minority representatives at one platform and i will try to organize such events more often so that our religious values, norms and our culture can be represented internationally. Dr. Ramesh (Patron-in-chief) also praised the efforts of Kirshan Lal for organizing such a wonderful event as he stated that Diwali is the day of lights but it is also the day when Truth became powerful over evil.

He said we should celebrated these events with interfaith harmony as we believe that as Eid is celebrated in the whole country unanimously so Diwali and Christmas should also be celebrated all over the country as we are all Pakistani first. The President Pakistan Hindu Council Mr. Gopal Khamuani also praised the efforts of organisers and said that these events are the representation of our religion. I am happy to see families coming for celebrating the Diwali and I wish these type of events will be organised in the future. In the end, all the guest and audience enjoyed the Soofi Kalam by the lady Singer.
