

Pauline Hanson gives thumbs up to Indian Migration to Australia

By : Surinder Jain.

Pauline Lee Hanson is an Australian politician and a Senator representing the state of Queensland. She is also the founder and leader of Pauline Hanson's One Nation Party (PHON). Despite Hanson's repeated denials of charges of racism,^[13] her views on race and immigration have been discussed widely in Australia. In her maiden speech, Hanson proposed a drastic reduction in immigration with particular reference to immigrants from Asia. Condemning multiculturalism, her One Nation party has rallied against government immigration and multicultural policies.^[20] Hanson publicly backed Kevin Andrews, then Minister for Immigration under John Howard, in his views about African migrants and crime.^[25]

Citizenship and Multicultural Affairs and Senator the Hon Zed Seselja Assistant Minister for Treasury and Finance, celebrated Deepawali festival and Annakut in the Great Hall of the Federal Parliament House in Canberra on Monday December 3, 2018. Pauline was one of the honored guests at Diwali. Although Diwali has been celebrated at federal Parliament for over ten years now, it was the first time that Pauline Hanson joined. "This is the first time I have ever been to this event. I am not anti-migrant at all." She said that she did not see any problem with Indians migrating to Australia. She expressed her happiness for having joined Diwali festivities. "It's very special what I understand as a community. I am still learning. I don't understand it fully but I think as a member of parliament and a national political party, it's nice to be a part of it and I support the Indian community on this special day."
