

Youth start planning their Parliament of World's religions for 2018

The cabinet of Youth Parliament of World's religion met for its first meeting to plan its annual event. The first meeting has kick started the event planning. The emphasis in the meeting was to get more religions and more youth involved in the planning process.

Youth Parliament of World's religions is an annual conference for the youth and by the youth to raise and discuss issues affecting youth and is an interfaith event. It holds this event in the month of September every year. We will keep you posted as it progresses.
