

Another Hindu Girl forcibly converted and married in Pakistan

According to Pakistan Today, a reputed news paper of Pakistan, Anusha Meghwar, a 16-year-old girl belonging to the Meghwal tribe in Salam Kot area in Tharparkar, was “forcibly married” after her “conversion” to Islam.

Atrocity on Hindus in Pakistan continue despite hollow promises of Pakistan’s PM Imran Khan, showing to the world how well minorities should be treated by other countries.

<https://twitter.com/KDSindhi/status/1087051565184311296/photo/1>

Those who ask me why Pakistani Hindus leave their motherland, they must know this reason!

Another Hindu girl, Anusha Meghwar, 16, becomes victim of forced conversion and marriage. According to Sindh Child Marriage Restraint Act any marriage under 18 years is illegal. pic.twitter.com/RsEAZ8Di4o

— Kapil Dev (@KDSindhi) January 20, 2019

Pakistan PM Imran Khan’s ex-wife Reham Khan took to twitter and condemned the incident saying, “Disgusting but there will be no action as politics comes first for all players.”

A Hindu girl in Pakistan’s Sindh province was allegedly converted and married off to a Muslim man. According to the report, the 16-year-old Hindu girl was abducted before she was married off to the Muslim man.

Anusha Meghwar, from Mehghwar tribe, was allegedly abducted from Salam Kot area in Tharparkar. Meghawar was later forcibly converted and married off to the Muslim man.

THARPARKAR AREA

The Muslim man, to whom Meghawar has been married off, reportedly enjoys support of the local Muslim cleric who is known to have converted many Hindu minorities people in the past. According to the the reports, at least 80 per cent of the population of Tharparkar area belongs to the Hindu faith.

However, the Hindu population is a victim to an ongoing assault by anti-Hindu groups who target them for abductions, rape, forced conversions, and forced marriages.

IMRAN KHAN GOVERNMENT IN PAKISTAN

Even though such cases are being reported on almost regular basis, neither the federal government of Imran Khan not the provincial government of Pakistan People Party (PPP) have taken any steps to curb and stop such incidents from happening.

Another Hindu Girl forcibly converted and married in Pakistan

The latest incident comes as a serious dent to the promises of the ruling government of Pakistan Prime Minister Imran Khan who had promised to prevent forced conversions and marriages of Hindu girls.

“Anusha’s forced marriage has once again conveyed a message to the Hindu community of the area that their children were not safe in Pakistan and they had taken a wrong decision in 1947 to stay in Sindh,” Kapil Dev, a human rights activist from Tharparkar, said.

IMRAN KHAN’S EX-WIFE SPEAKS

Imran Khan’s ex-wife Reham Khan took to twitter and condemned the incident.

“Another case of a Hindu female child forcefully converted and married off. Disgusting but there will be no action as politics comes first for all players,” Reham Khan wrote.

Read the published story in Pakistan Today here.

Share this web page on

38

Recommended for you

- Hindu Combined Marriages
By : Dr Ramesh Kumar Vankwani Dr Ramesh Kumar Vankwani Patron-in-chief, Pakistan Hindu Council Member of National Assembly WhatsApp: 0333-2277370...
 - Hindu brothers killed in a Hindu majority town in Pakistan courtesy New York Times. In Mithi, Hindus make up about 85 percent of the population. Hindus being in such a...
 - Pakistan seals Hindu deities, may renovate the temple
There are many Hindu temples in Pakistan most of them in disarray, their land under threat of encroachment from selfish...
 - Hindu Temples Of Lal Kurti Bazaar, Rawalpindi Pakistan
The most well preserved of the three Hindu temples in the old Lal-Kurti Bazar is now a private property of...
-

Another Hindu Girl forcibly converted and married in Pakistan

READ Australian Hindus help environment