

Register for a 10 day course on Hindu Philosophy

The Hindu Council of Australia invites you to register for a capsule course on Hindu Philosophy presented as a series of ten sessions of two hours each. The course will cover ten fundamental topics. Rational inquiry is the basis for Hindu beliefs and rituals. These ten sessions will introduce the methods of rational inquiry used by Indians and connect them to our daily practices.

Hindu Philosophy is a vast subject and these ten sessions are meant to give an introduction to ten topics and also to provide directions to students who want to study further with a rational inquiring mind.
