In the spirit of this time of year, we should recall the plight of the Yezidi and Bangladeshi Hindu people, who are experiencing a modern day form of slavery and flight as we speak.

Bangladesh has now been independent for 48 years but during this period of time, Shipan Kumer Basu, the President of the World Hindu Struggle, reported that only the Muslims obtained their freedom: "The 25 million minorities in the country are freedom fighters due to their perseverance in the face of adversity. During the War of Bangladeshi Independence, the minorities suffered unspeakable atrocities. In 1971, Hindus were massacred and raped by the Pakistanis and their Muslim Bengali allies. 100 million Hindus fled to India in order to save their lives."
