Do not let distant wars divide our shared home

Certain campaigns risk fuelling identity-based polarisation and selectively framing international conflicts for short-term domestic political gain.

As members of Australia's Hindu community, we make a respectful appeal for unity. We must not allow overseas conflicts to be imported and used to divide our society. Australia's strength lies in its multicultural harmony, mutual respect, and commitment to democratic values, principles that must never be compromised for political expediency.

When voting, support the candidate and the party that have consistently stood by your community and upheld the values that make Australia home.

Let us work together to safeguard the social fabric that enables every community to live side by side with dignity, peace, and mutual understanding.
